Encyclopedia Of The Horse

Synopsis

Encyclopedia of the Horse is a comprehensive reference manual for the horse lover and enthusiast. Beginning with a survey of the history of the horse and its domestication the book also includes a thorough listing of all the principle horse and pony breeds. Equestrian sports and recreation, as well as the physiology, behavior, and care of the horse are covered.

Customer Reviews

My Granddaughter who is 9 loves horses. Beautiful pictures. She looks at ad reads for hours.

I have read other enciclpedyas of horses, and although I would not say this one has any particular feature which makes it better than other enciclopedias, I would just remark this: this is a fairly good one. Lots of information, very good pictures. Perhaps the information provided on some of the breeds is too brief and in some cases -the Criollo, for example- information seemed a little vague and imprecise. Appart from these pitfalls, I would recommend its purchase.
