This is a fine summary of medieval philosophy. From Augustine through Suarez, it covers all of the important philosophers and philosopher/theologians from the medieval period. Boethius, Anselm, Abelard, Averroes, Maimonides, Bacon, Bonaventure, Albert the Great, Aquinas, Scotus, Ockham, Eckhart and others are all covered in detail. I found it a relatively easy and interesting read.

Excellent introduction to medieval thought. Easily understandable. Very clearly written and easily facilitates understanding of rather difficult concepts. Highly recommended.

Excellent copy; really enjoy it; nice addition to my library.

Great to work with! Would recommend this source for those looking to purchase books on carious academic topics. Arrived as was expected.
